MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel White

SUBJECT : Logistics Office Accomplishments and Objectives

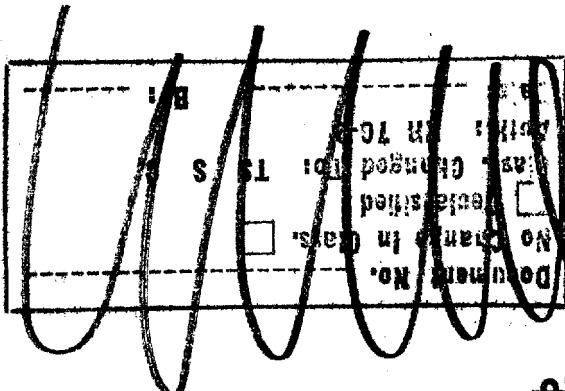

1. This is an excellent portrayal of the major accomplishments of the Logistics Office FY 1954. The major objectives programmed for FY 1955 give a clear picture of the Logistics Office activities for the purpose of rendering: better logistical support both in Headquarters and overseas, more efficient operations, obtaining more effective accountability and more accurate and up-to-date inventories.

2. It is suggested that the inclusion of objectives along the following lines might be of benefit to the Logistics Office:

a. Development of an internal long-range logistical training program for particularly qualified personnel.

b. The initiation of periodic inspections of overseas installations to determine that Logistics Office procedures are in being and are being properly followed to obtain the maximum efficiency.
